REPLY ATTENTION OF MR. Carroll.

March 18th, 1935.

Dr. H.B. Warren,
University of British Columbia,
Vancouver, B.C.

Dear Dr. Warren,

Further to our telephone conversation of this morning, I am now enclosing herewith the file in respect to the Oxford-Cambridge boat race night dinner. In addition to the names set forth in the list there are two others that might be included, namely:

John Benn,
Sylvia Court,
1154 Gilford Street, City, (Oxford)

and Lovatt Young,

c/o Vancouver Engineering Works,
519 W. Sixth Ave., City (Oxford)

On looking through the file, it would appear that the last dinner held at Jericho cost $1.00 for the dinner and .50¢ extra for the private dining room. The flowers and candles amounted to $2.70 and bar charges to $4.00. The latter included certain ingredients for the cocktails, cigars and cigarettes. I have taken out the receipted bill from the Club and also a memorandum of the charges, which you will find on the top of the file, and you will notice that in 1932 there was a deficit of $4.35.

I 'phoned the Club this morning and they informed me that their charges would remain the same, namely $1.00 a head for dinner and .50¢ for the private dining room per head. The decorations could be held down to the same amount, namely $2.70. The bar charges of course will vary according to the number of people who turn up for the dinner.

If you decide to hold the dinner at Jericho I shall be pleased to go out there with you at your convenience to settle the arrangements with the Club management. Mr. Holman, Attorney of Seattle, was good enough to send notices to all the other Seattle persons who might be interested in attending the dinner, as he is in direct touch with them. He does not consider this as an imposition, as he himself made the offer to me in 1932. You will see certain correspondence passing between us, at the top of the file in this respect.

If I can be of any help to you in the matter in any way, please do not hesitate to ask me.

Yours truly,

ATC/FB

March 20th, 1935.

Dear Sir,

It has been suggested that an attempt be made to revive, on April 6th 1935, the Oxford-Cambridge Boat Race Dinner.

Furthermore it has been suggested that the dinner should be a modest affair.

With these suggestions in view it has been found that an adequate dinner supported by wines but without cocktails can be had for the modest sum of $2.00 inclusive. Arrangements can be made for cocktails, should sufficient guests desire them, at 75 cents extra per head.

As arrangements must be made in advance will you please be good enough to notify me as soon as possible, by means of the form attached below, whether or not you propose attending the dinner. The closing date on which applications can be considered shall be Monday morning's mail on April 1st, 1935.

If twenty or more applications accompanied by cheque are received by this time I shall make the necessary arrangements for holding the dinner and notify you of all pertinent details on the following day. If less than twenty applications are received I shall return all cheques to you and there will be no dinner.

It is to be regretted that this letter is being sent on such short notice but I hope that you will forgive its shortcomings, honour us with your company, and help to reinaugurate an occasion which has proved so worthwhile in the past.

Moreover a successful turn-out this year would afford an excellent opportunity for all to state their wishes as to how the dinner should be held in future years.

Yours very truly,

HARRY V. WARREN

Dear Mr. Warren,

I applaud your effort in trying to get the Varsity men together for a dinner. Ask Hossie to pay you $2.<sup>00</sup> on my behalf and if I have as much money
when I arrive in Vancouver I will refund it to him. The gathering is worth $2 support, (to me)
whether I am able to be present or not, especially if I pay it by proxy! I don't suppose I shall be in Vancouver, but if I am I shall certainly attend.
I think you are very wise to cut out cocktails. If you have plenty of wine with your dinner it's all anybody could want - or should want.

If I am any judge of form I'm afraid Oxford will win the boat race, which of course will be very regrettable!

Wishing you a very happy evening whether she does or not,
I am

Thanks to this contribution of yours and the smaller one by Mr. Carroll, the budget was balanced and the dinner was generally voted a success, quite apart from the balanced budgets, which are rare in these days.

March 20th, 1935.

Dear Sir,

It has been suggested that an attempt be made to revive, on April 6th 1935, the Oxford-Cambridge Boat Race Dinner.

Furthermore it has been suggested that the dinner should be a modest affair.

With these suggestions in view it has been found that an adequate dinner supported by wines but without cocktails can be had for the modest sum of $2.00 inclusive. Arrangements can be made for cocktails, should sufficient guests desire them, at 75 cents extra per head.

As arrangements must be made in advance will you please be good enough to notify me as soon as possible, by means of the form attached below, whether or not you propose attending the dinner. The closing date on which applications can be considered shall be Monday morning's mail on April 1st, 1935.

If twenty or more applications accompanied by cheque are received by this time I shall make the necessary arrangements for holding the dinner and notify you of all pertinent details on the following day. If less than twenty applications are received I shall return all cheques to you and there will be no dinner.

It is to be regretted that this letter is being sent on such short notice but I hope that you will forgive its shortcomings, honour us with your company, and help to inaugurate an occasion which has proved so worthwhile in the past.

Moreover a successful turn-out this year would afford an excellent opportunity for all to state their wishes as to how the dinner should be held in future years.

Yours very truly,

HARRY V. WARREN

Dear Sir:

I much appreciate your circular letter of March 20th in regard to the proposal to revive the Oxford and Cambridge Boat Race Dinner. I have just returned from the Northwest Territories after a seven weeks' absence and much as I would like to, I cannot possibly make the trip to Vancouver for the purpose of the reunion.

I hope you will be successful in having the dinner and that you all have a jolly time.

I do not suppose you have an up-to-date list of the Oxford and Cambridge men in this part of the world. If so, I would very much appreciate a copy.

If, during the summer, I should manage to get down to Vancouver, I will take the pleasure of giving you a call.
